

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE, NASHVILLE DIVISION

JOHN DOE #1 (PTH),
JOHN DOE #2 (DMA),
JOHN DOE #3 (WCB),
JOHN DOE #4 (TDB),

Plaintiffs,

vs.

WILLIAM B. LEE, Governor of the State of Tennessee, and DAVID B. RAUSCH, Director of the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation,

Defendants.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiffs John Doe #1 (PTH) and John Doe #2 (DMA) and John Doe #3 (WCB) and John Doe #4 (TDB) (“Plaintiffs”) hereby complain against Defendants William B. Lee and David B. Rausch as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Article I, section 10, clause 1 of the United States Constitution (the “Ex Post Facto Clause”) provides in relevant part: “No State shall...pass any...ex post facto Law[.]” The Ex Post Facto Clause prohibits laws that impose retroactive punishment. A law imposes punishment if it is punitive in intent or punitive in effect.

2. All three (3) Plaintiffs are Tennessee residents who must comply with the Tennessee Sexual Offender and Violent Sexual Offender Registration, Verification, and Tracking Act of 2004 for the rest of their lives. See Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 40-39-201–40-39-218 (West 2021)

(“SORA”).

3. All three (3) Plaintiffs were convicted of committing a sex offense that occurred before SORA took effect on August 1, 2004.

4. SORA imposes onerous restrictions on each Plaintiff that burden his liberty in every aspect of his life. Each Plaintiff must report in person every calendar quarter and must report on 48 hours’ notice for certain other reasons. Pursuant to SORA, the state of Tennessee publicly and falsely identifies each Plaintiff as “violent.” Plaintiff may not live, work, stand, “sit idly,” or remain in vast areas of the state of Tennessee, especially within its cities and towns. Plaintiff cannot attend his children’s school functions and sporting events. Plaintiff must comply with these restrictions and obligations for the rest of his life. Any failure to comply is a felony punishable by a mandatory minimum prison term.

5. Individually and in combination, SORA’s requirements and limitations are punitive in effect and therefore constitute an unconstitutional ex post facto law as applied to each Plaintiff.

6. Each Plaintiff seeks declaratory and injunctive relief barring SORA’s application to Plaintiffs Jane Doe #1 (SLA) and Jane Doe #2 (ALW) and John Doe #1 (FB).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343 (West 2021) because Plaintiff seeks redress pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (West 2021) for the violation of his rights under the United States Constitution.

8. Plaintiffs’ claims for declaratory and injunctive relief are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201–2202 (West 2021), by Fed. R. Civ. P. 57 and 65 (West 2021), and by the legal and equi- table powers of this Court.

9. Venue is proper in the Middle District of Tennessee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) (West 2021).

PARTIES

Plaintiff iff

10. Plaintiff John Doe #1 (PH) is an individual who resides in Old Hickory, Tennessee and is required to comply with SORA.

11. Plaintiff John Doe #2 (DMA) is an individual who resides in Estill Springs, Tennessee and is required to comply with SORA.

12. Plaintiff John Doe #3 (WCB) is an individual who resides in Knoxville, Tennessee and is required to comply with SORA.

13. Plaintiff John Doe #4 (TDB) is an individual who resides in Knoxville, Tennessee and is required to comply with SORA.

Defendant Lee

14. Defendant William B. Lee is the Governor of the State of Tennessee and resides in the Middle District of Tennessee. He is sued in his official capacity.

15. Pursuant to Article III, section 1 of the Tennessee Constitution, the supreme executive power of the state is vested in the governor. The Tennessee Constitution further provides that the governor shall take care that applicable federal and state laws are faithfully executed. Tenn. Const., art. III, § 10 (West 2021). The governor is ultimately responsible for the enforcement of the laws of this state, including SORA, and for supervision of all state departments, including the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (the “TBI”), which maintains the sex offender registry created by

SORA.

16. Governor Lee is an appropriate defendant in a case challenging the constitutionality of SORA.

Defendant Rausch

17. Defendant David B. Rausch is the Director of the TBI and resides in the Middle District of Tennessee. He is sued in his official capacity.

18. SORA requires the TBI to maintain Tennessee's sex offender registry. Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-39-204(a) & (d), § 40-39-206(a) (West 2021). The TBI's responsibilities include enforcing SORA, maintaining the state's database of sex offenders, maintaining an Internet-accessible public sex offender registry, registering offenders (along with other law enforcement agencies), developing registration forms, providing statutorily-required notices to registrants, collecting registration fees, and coordinating with national law enforcement and the national sex offender registry. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 40-39-203(i), § 40-39-204(a) & (d), § 40-39-205(a) & (f), § 40-39-206 (West 2021).

19. The director of the TBI is an appropriate defendant in a case challenging the constitutionality of SORA.

FACTS

Tennessee's Sex Offender Registry Law

20. Tennessee's first sex offender registry law took effect January 1, 1995. 1994 Tenn.

Pub. Laws, ch. 976, § 11 (West).

21. After multiple amendments, the original sex offender registry law was ultimately replaced by SORA, effective August 1, 2004. 2004 Tenn. Pub. Acts, ch. 921, § 6 (West).

22. On March 2, 2013, Judge Aleta A. Trauger, United States District Judge for the Middle District of Tennessee issued a “memorandum” which stated that “the Court’s holding in this case strongly suggests that Tennessee’s policy of continuing to apply the Act [the SORA] to other individuals who committed pre-enactment offenses is unconstitutional. Indeed, that is putting things too mildly; the court’s holding definitely suggests as much. How could it not?” John Does #1-9 v. Lee and Rausch, Middle District of Tennessee, Case No. 3:21-CV-00590 (memorandum issued March 2, 2023 (emphasis in original)).

23. Also in Judge Aleta A. Trauger’s “memorandum” was a statement quoting Judge Richardson in Doe #11 v. Lee, No. 3:22-CV- 00338, 2022 WL 2181800 (M.D. Tenn. June 16, 2022 that “all Ex Post Facto Clause claims based on the Act, regardless of how they are characterized, must be evaluated ‘based on the law’s face, not based on its application to a specific plaintiff,’ other than with regard to “the date that the particular plaintiff . . . committed his offense.” John Does #1-9 v. Lee and Rausch, Middle District of Tennessee, Case No. 3:21-CV-00590 (memorandum issued March 2, 2023 (emphasis in original)).

Dates of Plaintiff’s Offenses

24. According to The Tennessee Sex Offender Registry, Plaintiff Jane Doe #1’s (SLA) conviction occurred on July 30, 2004; her “judgment” entered in the Shelby County Circuit Court Clerk’s office indicates she plead guilty on July 7, 2004. (Ex. 1 and 2).
25. According to The Tennessee Sex Offender Registry, Plaintiff Jane Doe #2’s (ALW) conviction occurred on April 1, 2002. (Ex. 3).
26. According to The Tennessee Sex Offender Registry, Plaintiff John Doe #1’s (FB) conviction occurred on August 8, 1990. (Ex. 4).

CLAIM FOR RELIEF

27. Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs by reference.
28. SORA applies retroactively to criminal offenses that occurred before SORA's effective Date of August 1, 2004.
29. Individually and in combination, SORA's provisions are punitive in effect on their face and/or as applied to each Plaintiff.
30. SORA therefore violates the Ex Post Facto Clause and is unconstitutional as applied to each Plaintiff.
31. Each Plaintiff is therefore entitled to a judgment: (a) declaring that (i) SORA violates the Ex Post Facto Clause as applied to Plaintiff and (ii) each Plaintiff has no obligation to comply with SORA; (b) preliminarily and permanently enjoining Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, servants, and attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them (i) from enforcing SORA against each Plaintiff, including the continued publication of each Plaintiff's information on the SOR, and (ii) to remove each Plaintiff's information from the SOR; and (c) awarding each Plaintiff's reasonable attorney fees.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

For these reasons, each Plaintiff requests the Court to grant judgment against Defendants:

1. (a) declaring that (i) SORA violates the Ex Post Facto Clause on its face based on each Plaintiff's offense dates being well before SORA's August 1, 2004 effective date and (ii) each Plaintiff has no obligation to comply with SORA; (b) issuing a preliminarily injunction which permanently enjoins Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, servants, and attorneys, and all persons in active concert or participation with them (i) from enforcing SORA against each Plaintiff, including the continued publication of each Plaintiff's information on the

SOR, and (ii) to remove each Plaintiff's information from the SOR;

2. Awarding each Plaintiff's costs and reasonable attorney fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988(b) following entry of judgment and upon Plaintiffs' motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d)(2); and

3. Granting any other necessary or proper relief.

Dated: September 11, 2023.
